MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Greetings Palmer Families!

As we get further into fall, the upcoming break compels me to reflect on what I'm thankful for:

- Supporting students in educational growth
- Living Palmer PRIDE
- Colorful fall leaves and winter sports
- Diverse perspectives, new energy, and the commitment of new staff
- Dedication of our returning staff
- Holiday breaks, the love of family, and hot peppermint mocha

Thank you families, for sharing a meal with us today. We look forward to returning with a renewed spirit for teaching and learning. Enjoy a week of reflection with your families.

-Dawn

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

November is Native American Heritage Month. We acknowledge the close relationship that Arapahoe, Cheyenne, Southern Ute and Ute Mountain Ute and Natives of other tribal Nations continue to have with the waters, plants, and all moving things that call this Land home. Keep an eye out on our Palmer social media and website for events, history and more information about Native American Heritage in Colorado.
